What do YOU see in this picture?

There are different ways of looking at things and we like to see the potential in people who have had a mental health issue.

We aim to bring out this potential with Work Well - West. This new project aims to offer the best possible service to people with mental health issues in the west of Leeds, who want to go back to work or who need support to stay in work.

We are achieving this by being the first employment service where different organisations put their heads together to help people who want to work.

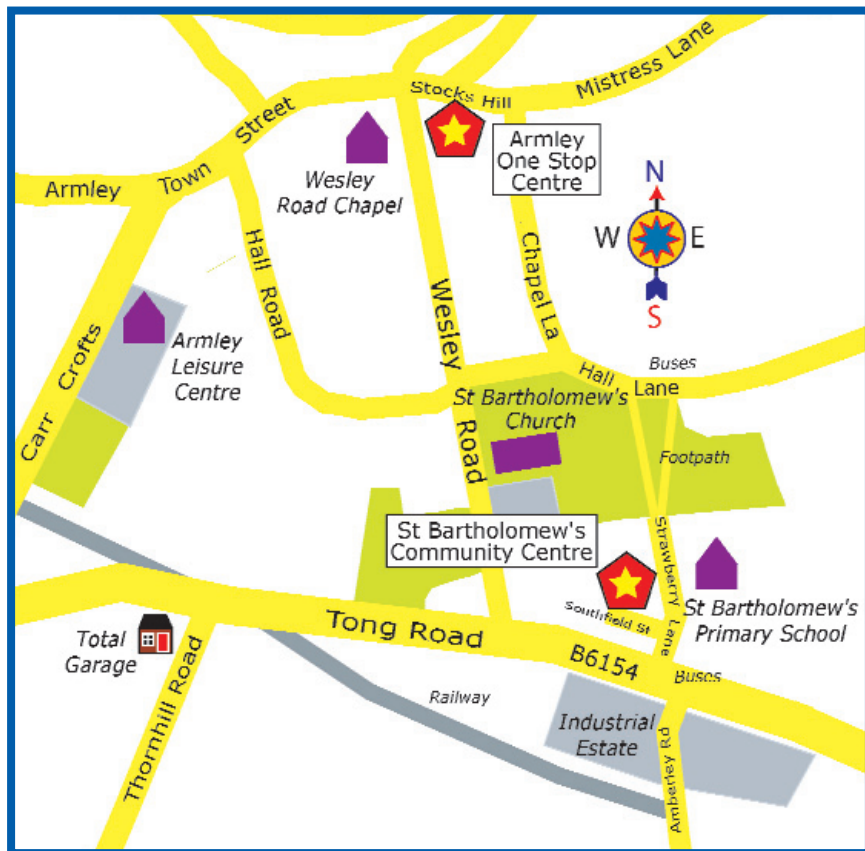

working in partnership towards equality of opportunity for all people
